The Ticket Completed.

The assembly convention which met at the ball tavern yesterday nominated A. W. Pope of the town of Janesville. Mr. Pope has formerly been a member of the assembly, and unites experience to his other qualifications for a legislator. He is known not only throughout the district but throughout the county as an able and true man and a sound republican.

This nomination completes the republican ticket in the county, and offers, from first to last, a ticket worthy of a cordial support. Each man on it, of course, be elected; but a mere election should not satisfy. This year is a year of big majorities, and "old Rock" has something to do in that department not only for President but for the local candidates. Therefore FILE UP THE MAJORITY in every district in the county.

The Douglasites are bolting up their fallen cause, by talks about fusion, while they, including their chief, bitterly denounce the Breckinridge men. What more complete fusion can they have than at the elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana?—In Ohio there was a complete fusion against Brinkerhoff and he beats them 13,000 votes; and an attorney general, the republican candidate, has a majority of nearly 20,000 over both of his opponents.

Against this array of facts what is the use of talking about a union of all the parties against Lincoln in these states? In other states the ticket is likely to be just the same as in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The result of the presidential election is not doubtful. The prospect now is that Lincoln will carry every free state.

INDIANA ELECTION.—Official returns from all but five counties in Indiana makes the republican majority on the state ticket 9,841. The Indianapolis Journal says that the majority will not probably reach 10,000, and will not be less than 9,500.

OHIO ELECTION.—Seventy-four counties in Ohio have been heard from officially, in which Brinkerhoff's majority is 11,847.—Of the remaining fourteen counties, six are reported official, and eight are estimated from the vote of 1859, which makes Brinkerhoff's net majority 12,812. The Cincinnati Gazette says that his majority will not vary 200 from 13,000. Brinkerhoff ran largely behind his ticket. For instance, Murray, republican candidate for Attorney General, beats both Stambaugh, (dem.) and Hutchison, (Am.) in sixty-eight counties, 19,623, while Brinkerhoff's majority in the same counties is only 15,530, showing that four thousand republicans refused to support Brinkerhoff. The majority over fusion, or the anti-republican elements, then, in sixty-eight counties, is 19,623. The state is therefore safe against fusion, and Lincoln's majority will be in the neighborhood of twenty thousand.

Douglas leaves Illinois on Monday, and is advertised to speak at Memphis on Wednesday. He closes his search for his ticket at Mobile, on the 5th of November.

If parents are shameless, the conduct of children will generally be shameful.

The South has had under its control for many years, a class of northern democratic dough faces, who have exhibited no courage but have always been the willing and obedient tools of their southern masters. The south has therefore a contempt for northern bravery and pluck. Judging us all from the specimens she has used, it is not surprising that an attempt is now being made to intimidate the voters of the north.

South Carolina has called a permanent session of her legislature to last during and beyond the presidential election, to be ready as is proclaimed, to take the initiation in a dissolution of the union, if the north dares to elect Abraham Lincoln president. They are, also in that terrible nation of South Carolina, forming companies of "minute men," who take a pledge, in view of the probable election of a republican president, that if they cannot sustain "southern constitutional equality" in the union they will establish "independence out of it." They wear cockades to distinguish themselves from honest union loving men.

These men, if they intended to do what they propose, would not now make known their programme; brave men do not talk of what they are going to do; real revolutionists and conspirators, are not noisy and glib; they act, generally before they speak. We may, therefore, conclude that these demonstrations are made merely to frighten northern voters from the polls.

We think it is about time that these blustering should be put to the test. We have heard their noise and fuss long enough.—And we much mistake the temper of our people if they do not give these quarrelsome partners in our Union an opportunity to carry out their threats if they dare.—These insulting proclamations of what South Carolina, and Alabama, and Gov. Wise of Virginia, will do, if we exercise our constitutional right of voting here in the north, will be met at this election, with a decisive answer. The threat of South Carolina will give thousands of votes to the republican ticket.

Should these conspirators attempt to carry their treason into effect, they will be met with such a storm of denunciation and resistance from the south itself as to dispose of southern diabolism forever. The patriotic masses of the southern states will take care of these men. Now is a good time to dispose of them forever, and it can be done effectually, and in no other way, by the election of Lincoln and Hamlin.

The Prospect in Illinois—Republican Meeting at Stoughton—Eloquent Speech of W. Johnson

STOUGHTON, Oct. 19, 1860.
Messrs. Editors:—My ramblings from home occasionally, in different sections of the country, give me tolerable opportunities to gather information on various subjects, particularly as regards politics,—at present the engrossing topic of thought and conversation. In railroad cars, in hotels, at agricultural fairs, in workshops, and in all places of trade and traffic, and in the social circle by the fireside, the principal questions that are agitated with any considerable degree of earnestness are of a political character. Sometimes a little boisterousness is manifested in the treatment of this subject; but I am pleased to note generally a calm and dignified bearing in the discussions that have passed under my observation. This is as it should be. Individuals differing in opinion on this or any other subject should talk together, but always in a friendly manner. I despise mere quarrelling, politically, as in all other respects.

In Illinois, judging from what I have seen and heard in the counties of Winnebago, Boone, McHenry, Kane and DeKalb, through which I have recently passed, the work of political regeneration and reform goes on bravely and well. The republican cause is gaining ground every day. It would not astonish me at all if the northern counties of Illinois should give Mr. Lincoln a two-thirds vote. If the republicans of Illinois are faithful, they are sure to win.

The republicans of this county are wide awake. They propose nothing less than a glorious victory on the 6th of November. There was a grand rally in this village yesterday afternoon and evening. Speeches were made by M. H. Orton, J. W. Johnson, S. C. Bean, and others. The remarks of a gentleman from Rockford, Ill., by the name of Smith, I think, were highly spoken of. The only entire speech I heard was delivered in the evening by J. W. Johnson, of Madison. I have heard several speeches during this campaign, but I have listened to none that exceeded this. It was patriotic, eloquent, earnest, truthful, convincing. It contained some very fine passages indeed. It was composed of fact, logic and appeal, with not the slightest sprinkling of blackguardism. It must have had a favorable influence upon the minds and consciences of the hundreds who listened to it with the utmost attention.

The display in the evening was good.—Wide awakes from Madison and other parts of the county were present to add to the interest and enthusiasm of the occasion. From present indications there must be a large republican majority in the county of Dane at the approaching election. If the friends of freedom do not relax their exertions the result will be all right. Work, work, WORK, should be the motto of every republican until the close of that coming November day that is looked to with the deepest interest by the American people. The eyes of the world is upon us.—May the verdict that shall be rendered be in behalf of freedom, justice and humanity.

Stoughton presents quite a business aspect. There has been a manifest improvement within the past few months.

In haste, yours,
— W. —

Indiana has a population of about 1,400,000, according to the official returns as far as received. At this rate she will not have an increase in the number of her representatives and electors.

Wisconsin will more than double her present number of members. She will probably have seven.

Before the October elections the Republican Association in Washington numbered only 300. Now there are 1,000 and they are still coming. The clerks in the departments are getting ready for a republican administration.

The Breckinridge majority in Florida is about 2,500, and in Delaware 936, as shown by the late elections.

Andrew G. Curtin, Governor elect of Pennsylvania, is six feet two inches high; Hannibal Hamlin is six feet three, and Abraham Lincoln six feet four.

The two highest officers of the New York Central Railroad are each candidates for congress, Corning (President) from Albany, and Vibbard (Gen. Supt.) from Schenectady. Both are democrats.

Ten or fifteen thousand gentlemen ordered suits for the New York Royal Ball. A great many did so in order to have it supposed that they had been invited. Others in the vain expectation of getting tickets.

The anniversary of the death of David C. Broderick was observed in California. The flags of several of the engine houses were at half-mast, and the republican and independent newspapers published articles laudatory of the man and honorable to his memory. The work on the monument has not yet commenced, although the sum of $3,000 is in the hands of the committee.

The business of cotton spinning in British India is succeeding beyond expectation and English capital is being drawn into it. Two new companies have been started at Bombay, with an aggregate capital of over four million dollars, and the English talk about making Bombay the Manchester of India.

There are said to be in London 30,000 sewing women, who earn barely $1 a week, while working incessantly sixteen or seventeen hours a day.

A man in Mercer county, Ohio, who put strychnine in his water melons and thus killed five persons who were depreeding on his vines, has been indicted for manslaughter.

Miss Emma Hickman was killed at a political barbecue at Westchester, Ky., on the 12th, by a shot fired by a son of Dr. West at some one who presented him from reaching the ladies table. The crowd undertook to lynch West, but he was rescued by the sheriff.

The names of David Wilmut, Morton McMichael, Alex. McClure, ex-Gov. Pollock, A. H. Reeder, Thaddeus Stevens, Eli Slifer, Henry C. Carey and Wm. Mann are mentioned for the United States senator from Pennsylvania.

The commissioners appointed by the Virginia legislature to purchase arms have bargained for 2,560 of the Enfield rifle in England.

A party of young rowdies at Goshen, Vt. last week, not being satisfied with "serenading" a newly married couple one night, came the next. A hospitable drink of beer all round, from the hands of the bride, made them glad to crawl home. The beverage was dozed with an emetic.

Four of the Bangor barbers, who refused to come into the arrangement to close their shops on Sunday, have been fined five dollars and costs each, in the Police court in that city. They appealed the case to the supreme judicial court. This will raise the question whether shaving is a work of mercy or necessity, within the meaning of the law.

The legislative council of Canada have taken a firm stand against death-bed bequests—enacting that no bequests will be valid if made within six months of the testator's death.

A SENSIBLE DEMOCRAT.—That was a shrewd suggestion of one of the terrified who said: "The democracy are a powerful nation, but I don't believe they can elect two Presidents in one year."

It has been customary at Washington for the ordinance department to grant a gun to the politicians for their little jollifications, upon their giving proper security for the return of the piece. So the republicans made application at the ordinance department for a gun to fire over the late elections. They were answered that it had been customary to grant similar requests, but that the war department must decide the point. The application was then transferred to the war department, and a flat refusal was the result. What is sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gander in that department. Democrats can have cannon for their rejoicings, but it by no means follows that the same favor will be granted to republicans.

The census develops the curious fact that there are more Scotch descendants in London than in Edinburgh, more Irish than in Dublin, 100,000 more Romanists than in Rome, and more Jews than in Palestine.—There are also in the same metropolis no less than 60,000 Germans, 30,000 French, and 5,000 Italians, a very large number of Asiatics from all parts of the east, and many who still worship their idols.

SOUTH CAROLINA THREATENS REBELLION.—The Governor of South Carolina has issued his usual proclamation for the assembly of the legislature to elect presidential electors, who will, of course, be Breckinridge men; but he has accompanied it with the unusual recommendation that the body thus convened should take measures for the defence and protection of the state. It is therefore expected that the legislature will remain in session until the fourth Monday of November, when the regular session will commence. This is a menace to the north. If the state of South Carolina expects to frighten the people of the north from voting as they please, she is mistaken. This action and recommendation of the governor says to us, "vote for Lincoln if you dare; if you elect him, I will rebel." Such an attempt to overawe our people by bravado will meet its appropriate answer at the polls.

Mr. Foote said that he would write a little book in which Mr. Benton should figure very largely. Mr. Benton heard of this, and replied in his characteristic way, to the informant: "Tell Foote that I will write a very large book, in which he will not figure at all." The "Thirty Years" will show how faithfully this promise was kept.

BOSTON, Oct. 20th.
The parties opposed to the republicans have fused in the 9th and 5th districts uniting on Messrs. Biglow and Appleton to congress against Messrs. Rice and Burlingame.

A collision occurred yesterday morning on the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway within two miles of Burlington, between the freight and express trains: Nichols, express messenger, and Wiley, freeman, killed.

PORT COLBORNE, Oct. 19.
A heavy freight train bound east on the Buffalo and Lake Huron railway early this A. M., ran into the Welland canal at this place, the swinging bridge having been left open. The train was drawn by 2 engines, one of which is in the canal completely obstructing it. The road is also temporarily impassable. No lives lost.

There have been five deaths from yellow fever within the last ten days.

MIKEWAKE, Oct. 20.
Flour—no transactions of importance.—Buyers very scarce. Wheat—New York despatches report continued dullness in the market, which fact, in connection with the chamber of commerce being occupied with other business, has restricted sales. Market closing dull and unsettled with every prospect of a further decline. A few sales were made at yesterday's prices. No. 2 in store 86, No. 1 in store 88.

THE DOUGLAS AND BELL TROUPE.—The following theatre bill is going the rounds of the southern press:
Daily performance at Know Nothing Hall, of the grand melo-drama of Rolo or Roin; principal character (Lord Selfish) by Mr. Douglas. Mr. Bell's benefit.
Ground and lolly tumbling by Messrs. Foote, Clemens, Soule and Johnson.
Comic songs, Git out Niggers! and Niggers Don't Bodder Me, by Messrs. Bell and Douglas.

After which the side-splitting interlude of You Tickle Me and I'll Tickle You. The whole to conclude with the Celebrated Fight of the Kilkenny Cats.

After which, on the first Tuesday in November, there will be a grand stampede by the whole troupe to the tune: Every Man for Himself, Devil take the Hindmost.
Being positively their last appearance on any stage.
Admission, two coin skins! Children half price.
N. B.—Niggers free!

Few people know, says the Cleveland Herald, how much of an item in the trade of Lake county is oil of peppermint. This year the money paid the producers of this oil will amount to over $4,000. It is worth two dollars twelve and a half cents per pound at Painesville. When old Geauga included the present territory of Lake, the annual distillation of the oil reached $7,000 in that one county, and prices, since it became a considerable article of manufacture, have varied from ninety cents to five dollars per pound.

IN ALL HER BEAUTY.—October, the nut-brown maid, in her dress of russet and green, is here, loaded with gifts, which, as usual, she distributes with a lavish and unsparring hand. She is not proud! not she, but visits all alike: the rich and the poor, the queen on her throne and the beggar in his garret, all share her smiles and her frowns equally, and to each she has some whispered word of special private import. The young maiden's cheek she crowns with rosy blushes; the matron's face she spreads with a look of busy anxiety. To some she brings hope, to some joy, to some sorrow. To the proud and haughty she brings the downfall of long-cherished dreams; to the patient and trusting she brings a reminder of departing glories, and a warning to prepare for the dark days to come.

THE "GREAT" DOUGLAS DEMONSTRATION AT SPRINGFIELD.—This affair, over which so much ado has been made for several weeks past, and which came off yesterday, was truly and candidly, a complete fiasco.

We had a reporter there, who returned this morning. He informs us that there were not 4,000 strangers in the city, and judging from the number of Lincoln badges, at least half of these were republicans. The procession, which was to be such a great affair, hadn't 900 people in it. Stephens and Johnson of Georgia, who were announced to be there, "came up missing," and ye Leetle Giant was the only "star" of the occasion, and the honors of the day were about equally divided between Old Abe and Douglas, full as many strangers calling on the former as on the latter, during the day.

"My great principle" was given in that same old speech, though more tamely and than usual. The whole "demonstration" was indication of the waning fortunes of Douglas in Illinois. It was "a great ad" about almost "nothing."—Chicago Journal.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN ACCESSION.—The Madison Democrat, hitherto one of the most indefatigable of German papers, has passed into the hands of a sound republican, Mr. O. J. Palmer, and will hereafter advocate the election of Lincoln and Hamlin and the whole republican ticket. Mr. Seikes, hitherto its editor, retires, conceding that Lincoln will be the next president, and then it is useless to prolong a struggle which the late elections have predetermined beyond a doubt.—Madison Journal.

CONDITION OF THE MINNESOTA STATE TREASURY.—The amount of the state warrants is now outstanding is about $27,000. Of this it is presumed that one half at least is in the hands of county treasurers—leaving about $13,000 almost available for the payment of state taxes.

The state taxes now due amount to $212,000. About $72,000 is due on the tax of 1859, upon which thirty per cent. interest will accrue after the first of December, if not paid before that time.

The state tax, we understand, is being paid at the rate of $2,000 per week, so that in a little over six weeks, at this rate, all the state scrip about will have been absorbed, and payments of state taxes must thereafter be paid in gold. This shows an excellent state of things in the state treasury, which in a short time will be able to pay its liabilities in gold.—St. Paul Pioneer.

When a youth serenades his mistress, it is supposed his nature is a-tuned to love.

"MY PRINCIPLE"—Mr. Douglas may well emphasize "my principle," for if we are to judge from the election returns, it is nobody's else principle.—Detroit Tribune.

CARL SCHURZ.—Much of the complete ness of the victory in Pennsylvania is due to the labors of Carl Schurz. His published speeches had a wide circulation in the state, and wherever he spoke he accomplished a great deal of good in enlightening those whose prejudices had hitherto kept them in the dark. The Locofoco press abused him without stint, lied about him and heaped maledictions on his head; and this is their usual course when they see power slipping from their grasp through the instrumentality of such men. All honor to Carl Schurz!—Pittsburgh Gazette.

While the republican press in the states where Mr. Schurz has rendered such signal service to the good cause, freely acknowledge their indebtedness to him for contributing so largely to their triumph, the organs of the sham democracy everywhere term his misrepresentations of his history and his political opinions. Thus the Madison Patriot of Wednesday contains the following:

"The prominent declaimer, says the Washington States & Union, at the infidel convention in New York city, on Saturday last, were some of the lights of the republican party, including Carl Schurz, the German republican champion of the west."

Instead of declaiming at the "infidel convention" in New York, last Saturday, Mr. Schurz was present and addressed the grand republican gathering at Buffalo.—What fabrication will the shams start next in regard to Mr. Schurz?—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A GOOD PAPER FOR EVERY FAMILY.—All our readers may not be acquainted with one of the most valuable agricultural and family journals in the country, now in its nineteenth volume. We refer to the American Agriculturist, which is a large and beautiful journal, devoted to the practical labors of the field, garden, and the household. It is prepared by practical men (and women) who know what they write about, and it gives a great amount of valuable information, useful not only to farmers, gardeners, stock-raisers, fruit growers, and those who have little village plots, but also to every family. We advise our readers to send $1 to the publisher, Orange Judd, 41 Park Row, New York, and try the Agriculturist a year. A specimen copy can be had on request, and the publisher will send a copy of the paper to the publisher of the paper.

WISCONSIN LEGISLATURE FOR THE SENATE, Janesville, Wis., Oct. 18th, 1860.

Mr. L. Moore—Dear Sir—Having had in constant use for nearly a year a pair of Levi's Patent Bed Springs purchased of you, I am prepared to recommend the same as the best article of the kind which has ever come under my notice. In fact it is the first and only bed spring I have been willing to use. Besides being exceedingly comfortable, it is at once simple, clean and durable, and is in every way adapted to its use as it maintains the mattress in such a way as to expose its under surface at all times to a free circulation of air. The Ticket Completed.

The assembly convention which met at the ball tavern yesterday nominated A. W.
Pope of the town of Janesville. Mr. Pope has formerly been a member of the assembly, and unites experience to his other qualifications for a legislator. He is known not only throughout the district but throughout the county as an able and true man and a sound republican.

This nomination completes the republican ticket in the county, and offers, from ticket to ticket, a ticket worthy of a cordial support. Each man on it, of course, helieved that a mere election would not satisfy. This year is a year of great majority, and "old Rock" has something to do in that department not only for President but for the local candidates. Therefore PILGRIM THE MAJORITY in every district in the county.

The Douglasites are bolstering up their fallen cause, by talks about fusion, while they, including their chief, bitterly debance the Breckinridge men. What more complete fusion can they have than at the elections in Pennsylvania and Indiana?— In Ohio there was a complete fusion against Breckinridge and he beats them 13,000 votes; and an attorney general, the republican candidate, has a majority of nearly 20,000 over both of his opponents.

Against this array of facts what is the use of talking about a union of all the parties against Lincoln in these states? In other states the result is likely to be just the same as in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. The result of the presidential election is not doubtful. The prospect now is that Lincoln will carry every free state.

Indiana Election.—Official returns from all but five counties in Indiana makes the republican majority on the state ticket 2,241. The Indianapolis Journal says that the majority will not probably reach 10,000, and will not be less than 9,500.

Ohio Election.—Seventy-four counties in Ohio have been heard from officially, in which Brinkerhoff's majority is 11,847.— Of the remaining fourteen counties, six are reported official, and eight are estimated from the vote of 1859, which makes Brin-kerhoff's net majority 12,812. The Cincinnati Gazette says that his majority will not vary 200 from 13,000. Brinkerhoff ran largely behind his ticket. For instance, Murray, republican candidate for Attorney General, beats both Stambaugh, (dem.), and Hutchison, (Am.) in sixty-eight counties, 19,623, while Brinkerhoff's majority in the same counties is only 15,350, showing that four thousand republicans refused to support Brinkerhoff. The majority over fusion, or the anti-republican elements, then, in sixty-eight counties, is 19,623! The state is therefore safe against fusion, and Lincoln's majority will be in the neighborhood of twenty thousand.

Douglas leaves Illinois on Monday, and is advertised to speak at Memphis on Wednesday. He closes his search for his mother at Mobile, on the 6th of November.

If parents are shameless, the conduct of children will generally be shameful.

Threats from the South.

The South has had under its control for many years, a class of northern democratic dough faces, who have exhibited no courage but have always been the willing and obedient tools of their southern masters. The south has therefore a contempt for northern bravery and pluck. Judging us all from the specimens she has used, it is not surprising that an attempt is now being made to intimidate the voters of the north.

South Carolina has called a permanent session of her legislature to last during and beyond the presidential election, to be ready as is proclaimed, to take the initiation in a dissolution of the union, if the north dares to elect Abraham Lincoln president. They are, also in that terrible nation of South Carolina, forming companies of "minute men," who take a pledge, in view of the probable election of a republican president, that if they cannot sustain "southern constitutional equality" in the union they will establish "independence out of it." They wear cockades to distinguish themselves from honest union loving men.

These men, if they intended to do what they propose, would not now make known their programme; brave men do not talk of what they are going to do; real revolutionaries and conspirators, are not noisy and gar-rulous; they act, generally before they speak.
We may, therefore, conclude that these demonstrations are made merely to frighten northern voters from the polls.

We think it is about time that these blusters should be put to the test. We have heard their noise and fuss long enough.—
And we much mistake the temper of our people if they do not give these quarrelsome partners in our Union an opportunity to carry out their threats if they dare.— These insulting proclamations of what South Carolina, and Alabama, and Gov.
Wise of Virginia, will do, if we exercise our constitutional right of voting here in the north, will be met at this election, with a decisive answer. The threat of South Carolina will give thousands of votes to the republican ticket.

Should these conspirators attempt to carry their treason into effect, they will be met with such a storm of denunciation and resistance from the south itself as to dispose of southern disunionists forever. The patriotic masses of the southern states will take care of these men. Now is a good time to dispose of them forever, and it can be done effectually, and in no other way, by the election of Lincoln and Hamlin.

The Prospect in Illinois—Republican Speech of J. W. Johnson.

STOUGHTON, Oct. 19, 1860.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—My rambles from home occasionally, in different sections of the country, give me tolerable opportunities to gather information on various subjects, particularly as regards politics,—at present the engrossing topic of thought and conversation. In railroad cars, in hotels, at agricultural fairs, in workshops, and in all places of trade and traffic, and in the social circle by the fireside, the principal questions that are agitated with any considerable degree of earnestness are of a political character. Sometimes a little boisterousness is manifested in the treatment of this subject; but I am pleased to note generally a calm and dignified bearing in the discussions that have passed under my observation. This is as it should be. Individuals differing in opinion on this or any other subject should talk together, but always in a friendly manner. I despise mere quarreling, politically, as in all other respects.

In Illinois, judging from what I have seen and heard in the counties of Winnebago, Boone, McHenry, Kane and DeKalb, through which I have recently passed, the work of political regeneration and reform goes on bravely and well. The republican cause is gaining ground every day. It would not astonish me at all if the northern counties of Illinois should give Mr. Lincoln a two-thirds vote. If the republicans of Illinois are faithful, they are sure to win.

The republicans of this county are wide awake. They propose nothing less than a glorious victory on the 6th of November.
There was a grand rally in this village yesterday afternoon and evening. Speeches were made by M. H. Orton, J. W. Johnson, S. C. Bean, and others. The remarks of a gentleman from Rockford, Ill., by the name of Smith, I think, were highly spoken of.
The only entire speech I heard was delivered in the evening by J. W. Johnson, of Madison. I have heard several speeches during this campaign, but I have listened to none that exceeded this. It was patriotic, eloquent, earnest, truthful, convincing.
It contained some very fine passages indeed. It was composed of fact, logic and appeal, with not the slightest sprinkling of blackguardism. It must have had a favorable influence upon the minds and consciences of the hundreds who listened to it with the utmost attention.

The display in the evening was good.— Wide Awakes from Madison and other parts of the county were present to add to the interest and enthusiasm of the occasion.
From present indications there must be a large republican majority in the county of Dane at the approaching election. If the friends of freedom do not relax their exertions the result will be all right. Work, work, WORK, should be the motto of every republican until the close of that coming November day that is looked to with the deepest interest by the American people. The eye of the world is upon us.— May the verdict that shall be rendered be in behalf of freedom, justice and humanity.

Stoughton presents quite a business aspect. There has been a manifest improvement within the past few months.

In haste, yours, W. —

Indiana has a population of about 1,400, 000, according to the official returns as far as received. At this rate she will not have an increase in the number of her representatives and electors.

Wisconsin will more than double her present number of members. She will probably have seven.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Before the October elections the Republican Association in Washington numbered only 300. Now there are 1,008 and they are still coming. The clerks in the departments are getting ready for a republican administration.

The Breckinridge majority in Florida is about 2,500, and in Delaware 936, as shown by the late elections.
Andrew G. Curtin, Governor elect of Pennsylvania, is six feet two inches high; Hannibal Hamlin is six feet three, and ABRAHAM LINCOLN six feet four.

The two highest officers of the New York Central Railroad are each candidates for congress, Corning (President) from Albany, and Vibbard (Gen. Supt.) from Schenectady.
Both are democrats.

Ten or fifteen thousand gentlemen ordered suits for the New York Royal Ball. A great many did so in order to have it supposed that they had been invited. Others in the vain expectation of getting tickets.

The anniversary of the death of David
C. Broderick was observed in California.
The flags of several of the engine houses were at half-mast, and the republican and independent newspapers published articles laudatory of the man and honorable to his memory. The work on the monument has not yet commenced, although the sum of $5,000 is in the hands of the committee.

The business of cotton spinning in British India is succeeding beyond expectation and English capital is being drawn into it.
Two new companies have been started at Bombay, with an aggregate capital of over four million dollars, and the English talk about making Bombay the Manchester of India.

There are said to be in London 36,000 sewing women, who earn barely $1 a week, while working incessantly sixteen or seventeen hours a day.

A man in Mercer county, Ohio, who put strychnine in his water melons and thus killed five persons who were deprecating his vines, has been indicted for manslaughter.

Miss Emma Hickman was killed at a political barbecue at Westchester, Ky., on the 12th, by a shot fired by a son of Dr. West at some one who prevented him from reaching the ladies' table. The crowd undertook to lynch West, but he was rescued by the sheriff.

The names of David Wilmot, Morton McMichael, Alex. McClellan, ex-Gov. Pollock, A. H. Reeder, Thaddeus Stevens, Eli Slifer, Henry C. Carey and Wm. Mann are mentioned for the United States senator from Pennsylvania.

The commissioners appointed by the Virginia legislature to purchase arms have bargained for 2,500 of the Enfield rifle in England.

A party of young rowdies at Goshen, Yt., last week, not being satisfied with "serenading" a newly married couple one night, came the next. A hospitable drink of beer all round, from the hands of the bride, made them glad to crawl home. The beverage was doled with an emetic.

Four of the Bangor barbers, who refused to come into the arrangement to close their shops on Sunday, have been fined five dollars and costs each, in the Police court in that city. They appealed the case to the supreme judicial court. This will raise the question whether shaving is a work of mercy or necessity, within the meaning of the law.

The legislative council of Canada have taken a firm stand against death-bed bequests—enacting that no bequests will be valid if made within six months of the testator's death.

A SENSIBLE DEMOCRAT.—That was a shrewd suggestion of one of the unaffiliated who said: "The democracy are a powerful nation, but I don't believe they can elect two Presidents in one year."

It has been customary at Washington for the ordinance department to grant a gun to the politicians for their little jollifications, upon their giving proper security for the return of the piece. So the republicans made application at the ordinance department for a gun to fire over the late elections. They were answered that it had been customary to grant similar requests, but that the war department must decide the point. The application was then transferred to the war department, and a flat refusal was the result.

What is sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gander in that department. Democrats can have cannon for their rejoicings, but it by no means follows that the same favor will be granted to republicans.

The census follows the curious fact that there are more Scotch descendants in London than in Edinburgh; more Irish than in Dublin, 100,000 more Romanists than in Rome, and more Jews than in Palestine.—
There are also in the same metropolis no less than 60,000 Germans, 30,000 French, and 6,000 Italians, a very large number of Asiatics, from all parts of the east, and many who still worship their idols.

SOUTH CAROLINA THREATENS REBELLION.
—The Governor of South Carolina has issued his usual proclamation for the assembly of the legislature to elect presidential electors, who will, of course, be Breckinridge men; but he has accompanied it with the unusual recommendation that the body thus convened should take measures for the defense and protection of the state. It is therefore expected that the legislature will remain in session until the fourth Monday of November, when the regular session will commence. This is a menace to the north.

If the state of South Carolina expects to frighten the people of the north from voting as they please, she is mistaken. This action and recommendation of the governor says to us, "vote for Lincoln if you dare; if you elect him, I will rebel." Such an attempt to overawe our people by bravado will meet its appropriate answer at the polls.

Mr. Foote said that he would write a little book in which he would show how largely Mr. Benton heard of this, and replied in his characteristic way, to the informant: "Tell Foote that I will write a very large book, in which he will not figure at all." The "Thirty Years" will show how faithfully this promise was kept.

PORT COLBORNE, Oct. 19.
A heavy freight train bound east on the Buffalo and Lake Huron railway early this
A. M., ran into the Wallingford train, and the swinging bridge having been left open.
The train was drawn by 2 engines, one of which is in the canal completely ob-

Flour—no transactions of importance.— Buyers very scarce. Wheat—New York despatches report continued dullness in the market, which fact, in connection with the diminution of commerce being occupied with other business, has caused a general prospect closing dull and unsettled with every prospect of a further decline. A few sales were made at yesterday's prices. No. 2 in

THE DOUGLAS AND BELL TRAGEDY.—The following theatre bill is going the rounds of the southern press:

Daily performance at Know Nothing Hall, of the grand melo-drama of Rule or Ruin;
principal character (Lord Selfish) by Mr.
Douglas. Mr. Bell's benefit.

Ground and lofty tumbling by Messrs.
Foote, Clemens, Soule and Johnson.
Comic songs, Gilt out Niggers! and Niggers Don't Bodder Me, by Messrs. Bell and Douglas.

After which the side-splitting interlude of You Tickle Me and I'll Tickle You. The whole to conclude with the Celebrated Fight of the Kilkenny Cats.

After which, on the first Tuesday in November, there will be a grand stampede by the whole troupe to the tune: Every Man for Himself, Devil take the Hindmost.

Being positively their last appearance on any stage.

Admission, two coon skins! Children half price.

N. B.—Niggers free!

Few people know, says the Cleveland Herald, how much of an item in the trade of Lake county is oil of peppermint. This year the money paid the producers of this oil will amount to over $4,000. It is worth two dollars twelve and a half cents per pound at Painesville. When old Geauga included the present territory of Lake, the annual distillation of the oil reached $7,000 in that one county, and prices, since it became a considerable article of manufacture, have varied from ninety cents to five dollars per pound.

IN ALL HER BEAUTY.—October, the nutbrown maid, in her dress of russet and green, is here, loaded with gifts, which, as usual, she distributes with a lavish and unsparing hand. She is not proud! not she, but visits all alike: the rich and the poor, the queen on her throne and the beggar in his garret, all share her smiles and her favors equally, and to each she has some whispered word of special private import.
The young maiden's cheek she crowns with roses and blushes; the matron's face she spreads with a look of busy anxiety. To some she brings hope, to some joy, to some sorrow. To the proud and haughty she brings the downfall of long-cherished dreams; to the patient and trusting the fruition of scarcely cherished hopes; to all she brings a reminder of departing glories, and a warning to prepare for the dark days to come.

THE "GREAT" DOUGLAS DEMONSTRATION AT SPRINGFIELD.—This affair, over which so much ado has been made for several weeks past, and which came off yesterday, was truly and candidly, a complete fiasco.

Who had a warning there, who regard this morning. He informs us that there were not 4,000 strangers in the city, and judging from the number of Lincoln badges, at least half of these were republicans.
The procession, which was to be such a great affair, hadn't 900 people in it. Stephens and Johnson of Georgia, who were announced to be there, "came up missing," and ye League Giant was the only "star" of the occasion, and the honors of the day were about equally divided between Old Abe and Douglas, full as many strangers calling on the former as on the latter, during the day.

"My great principle" was aired in that same old speech, though more lamely than usual. The whole "demonstration" was an indication of the waning fortunes of Douglasism in Illinois. It was "a great ado" about almost "nothing."—Chicago Journal.

ANOTHER REPUBLICAN ACCESSION.—The Madison Democrat, hitherto one of the most indefatigable of German papers, has passed into the hands of a sound republican.
Mr. C. J. Palmer, and will hereafter oppose the election of Lincoln and Hamlin and the whole republican ticket.

Mr. Sekies, hitherto its editor, resigning, conceding that Lincoln will be the next president, and that it is useless to prolong a struggle which the late elections have predetermined beyond a doubt.—Madison Journal.

CONDITION OF THE MINNESOTA STATE TREASURY.—The amount of the state warrants is now outstanding about $27,000.
Of this it is presumed that one half at least is in the hands of county treasurers—leaving about $12,000 about available for the payment of state taxes.

The state taxes now due amount to $212, 000. About $72,000 is due on the tax of 1859, upon which thirty per cent. interest will be due on the first of December, if not paid before that time.

The state tax, we understand, is being paid at the rate of $2,000 per week, so that in a little over six weeks, at this rate, all the state scrip about will have been absorbed, and payments of state taxes must thereafter be paid in gold. This shows an excellent state of things in the state treasury, which in a short time will be able to pay its liabilities in gold.—St. Paul Pioneer.

When a youth serenades his mistress, it is supposed his nature is at-tuned to love.

"My principle"—Mr. Douglas may well emphasize "my principle" for if we are to judge from the election returns, it is nobody's else principle.—Detroit Tribune.

CARL SCHURZ.—Much of the completeness of the victory in Pennsylvania is due to the labors of Carl Schurz. His published speeches had a wide circulation in the state, and he spoke before the assembled of a great deal of good in enlightening those whose prejudices had hitherto kept them in the dark. The locofoco press abused him without stint, lied about him and heaped maledictions on his head; and this is their usual course when they see power slipping from their grasp through the instrumentality of such men. All honor to Carl Schurz!— Pittsburgh Courier.

While the republican press in the states where Mr. Schurz has rendered such signal service to the good cause, freely acknowledge their indebtedness to him for contributing so largely to their triumph, the organs of the sham democracy everywhere teem with the foulest abuse of him and grossest misrepresentations of his history and his political opinions. Thus the Madison Republic of Wednesday contains the following:

"The prominent declaimers, says the Washington States & Union, at the Infield convention in New York city, on Saturday last, were some of the lights of the republican party, including Carl Schurz, the German republican champion of the west."

Instead of declaiming at the "Infield convention" in New York, last Saturday, Mr. Schurz was present and addressed the grand republican gathering at Buffalo.— What fabrication will the shams start next in regard to Mr. Schurz?—Milwaukee Sentinel.

A GOOD PAPER FOR EVERY FAMILY.— All our readers may not be acquainted with one of the most valuable agricultural and family journals in the country, now in its nineteenth volume. We refer to the American Agriculturist, which is a large and beautiful journal, devoted to the practical labors of the field, garden, and the household. It is prepared by practical men (and women) who know what they write about and it gives a great amount of valuable information, useful not only to farmers, gardeners, stock-raisers, fruit growers, and those who have little village plots, but also to every family. We advise our readers to send $1 to the publisher, Orange Jud, 41 Park-Road, New York, and try the Agriculturalist for a year. An specimen copy can be sent free of charge to the publisher.

Those subscribing now for the twentieth volume, (1861,) will get the remaining numbers of this year without charge.

ELECTIONS.—On the 6th of November, the day of the presidential election, the states of Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, New York, Massachusetts, Delaware, California and Maryland will vote for congressmen and state officers.

The legislatures to be elected on that day in Louisiana, Illinois, New York, Wisconsin, Iowa and California are to select United States senators for the terms vacated by Messrs. Sidel, Trumbull, Seward, Durkee, Harlan and Gwin respectively.

A TAMMANY HALL NOTICE.—The following specimen of exact scholarship in the department of notices in English, was found posted up at Tammany Hall, on Thursday:
"Seat can be had here for to see the procession of the Prince of Whales on the balcony enquire at the bar for 50 cents."

A DASTARDLY OTRAGE.—At Troy, N. Y., the Wide Awakes were parading on last Saturday evening, when the Douglas demonstrators of one of the lower wards, who,
it seems, had deliberately prepared to attack them, at a given signal, cowardly hurled stones and other missiles at the procession from the roofs, windows and steps of the buildings. Many of the Wide Awakes and other persons were severely hurt, some two hundred being more or less injured.

The murderous outrage was premeditated, as was very evident, and yet the know nothing and Douglas organs attempt to justify the assault. This is carrying partizanship to criminal excess, and no man, unless he be himself a ruffian, will attempt a defense or justification of the like.

ATTENTION

Wide Awakes! There will be a meeting of the Wide Awakes on Saturday evening at 7 1/2 o'clock.

An Excursion to Milwaukee to unite in the reception of CARL SCHURZ, is proposed. Let every member be present, so that it may be known how many are going, and that preparations may be made for the trip.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

REPUBLICAN MEETING IN CENTRE.—Messrs. Cassaday, Gillett, Putnam and Comstock addressed the republicans of the town of Center at Crow's school house last evening. There was an attendance of about one hundred, and the strict attention of the audience gave evidence that they were interested in the remarks of the several speakers. Look for a good report from Center after the ballots are counted.

LONDON AND DOUGLAS, OR "SELF-MADE MEN."—Miss M. F. Wheeler, of Oshkosh, Wis., will deliver her lecture this evening, at the court room, commencing at 7 o'clock. It was owing to a misunderstanding about the room that the lecture was not delivered last evening.

GALENA AND CHICAGO UNION R. R.—We are gratified in being able to announce that the arrangements by which the trains on this road ran into Janesville, which have been suspended for some time past, have been resumed, and that the trains on the road yesterday commenced running directly to and from the city, instead of the Bass Creek junction. This arrangement is highly satisfactory to our citizens, and we presume equally so to the company. It is one of the evidences of the increasing prosperity of the city.

THE WAY IT WORKS.—Since the assault on the Wide Awakes which visited Watertown last Monday evening, a company of three hundred has been organized in that city, and uniforms sent for. As a matter of gain, such exhibitions are the poorest kind of investment to those who indulge in them.

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS.—Among the indications of the growing business on the Chicago and Northwestern railway is an enlargement of the engine house of the company in this city. When the enlarged structure is completed it will accommodate 10 locomotives. The company are also constructing a turn table, wood shed and water tank this side of the river, for the better convenience of the trains on the road. The water to supply the tank will be brought from the upper bridge by a caloric engine through iron pipes. Outside of Milwaukee, there is no locality in the state which requires as many railroad facilities as Janesville.

ACCIDENT WITH A GUN.—A son of W. A. Norton, of Center, was severely injured by the accidental discharge of a gun. His hand was over the muzzle when the discharge took place and was badly shattered. The wound was dressed by Dr. Palmer of this city.

NOR SO.—The Gazette of last evening states that the democratic assembly convention, for the Janesville city district, is "called to meet next Monday." There is no such call that we have seen. The convention meets on Wednesday evening, Oct. 24th, at 7 1/2 o'clock p. m.—Democrat.

We wrote "Wednesday" and would have so printed it if the compositor had consented. With his permission, we will make the correction now.

A CURIOUS PRACTICE—WHAT DOES IT MEAN?—We find in the Columbia (S. C.) Guardian, the following paragraph:

For years past the system of "bull penning," or confining voters previous to an election, has been adopted in Richmond district, and although we do not know to what extent it has been carried into the election just held, yet it is a proper occasion to call the attention of the people to a system at war with our republican institutions, and degrading and corrupting to a large portion of the voters.

REPORT OF THE STATE TREASURER.—The annual report of the state treasurer has been published. The expenses of the year fall below $200,000. This is some hundred thousand dollars less than Secretary Jones estimated last fall. On the 1st day of October there was a balance in the treasury of $39,045.46. During the past year all demands against the general fund have been promptly paid upon presentation, and the balance in the treasury, with what will be received previous to the receipt of the next state tax, will be more than sufficient to meet all accruing liabilities as they mature.

On Wednesday morning last, while a salute was being fired in honor of the democratic mass meeting at Adrian, Michigan, a man had both his hands shot off. He was ramming home the cartridge, when a premature explosion took place. Amputation was immediately resorted to.

WASHINGTON CO. No. 3.—A special meeting of this company will be held at the Engine house on Monday evening, Oct. 22d, at 8 o'clock. Let every member attend, as business of importance will be brought before the company.

D. C. WARD, Foreman.
Wm. M. Birt, Secretary.

The Quakers are Out.

By JOHN S. WATKINS.

Not truly we waited and counted the hours. Not vainly we hoped and longed for the dawn. No room for misgiving—no loop-hole of doubt!—We have heard from the Quakers! The Quakers are out! The plot has exploded—we've found out the trick! The bribe goes a-begging—the fustian won't hold! When the Wide-Awakes are stirring about the city, the Quakers are out! The Quakers are out!

The good state has broken the cords for her arm; Her oil springs and water won't fuse into one! The Dutchman has seasoned with Freedom his trout, And show, late but certain, the Quakers are out!

Give the dogs to the winds—let the hills all assume! Make way for the man with the patriarch's name! Away with misgivings—away with all doubt! For Lincoln goes in when the Quakers come out!

Oh, the Bell-Event! party at the cash parade the state with bells—a large bell on a wagon going first, and other smaller bells following after (carried by men or boys), tapping down to a tea ball. The following lines, parodied from Poe's lyric "The Bell," refers to this practice:

Hear the Opposition Bells, Empty bells,
How they tinkle, rattle, rattle,
How they tinkle, rattle, rattle,
Like a cow-bell with a cold,
Like the bells they hang on cattle,
Or a sword and buckler battle,
In the civil fray of old.

Oh! the anger and the elation
Of the horse!
From New Orleans unto Bangor,
How they tinkle, rattle, rattle,
Hear their broad and brassy throats Begging abolition votes—
With a pledge to make the Quakers out!
In the war against Secession, Whilst they stily try to "ring in" Mr. Bell, Oh! the fusion and confusion of these bells!

Correspondence of the Press & Tribune.
Herschel V. Johnson Prefers a Negro to Lincoln for President.

GRANDVIEW, Ill., Oct. 16, 1860.

Enclosed I send you a slip from the Wash Daily Express of yesterday, published in Terre Haute, Ind. Judge Conard is an old and well known citizen of Terre Haute. He was for many years editor of the Wash Courrier. His statement will be received with implicit confidence wherever he is known. Besides, the certificates of hundreds, of every political party, can be obtained, that this statement is true in every particular.

This declaration, not merely of negro equality, but of negro superiority, comes from a leader of the party which has been charging negro equality upon the republicans from every stump in the northwest. Men of Illinois! Will you vote for this man, who says, in a set speech, that he would rather see one of his negroes was elected President of the United States than Abraham Lincoln? Can you vote for him and vote your sentiments? Will you vote for the man who thus insults you by preferring a negro to rule over you, rather than your own honored Lincoln? Can you do it and preserve your own self-respect? Will you do it? We will see.

D. W. STORMONT.

The following is the article alluded to in the above communication: For the Express. GOV. JOHNSON'S SPEECH AT TERRE HAUTE. The telegraph reports to the country that Governor Johnson said in his speech at Terre Haute, at the great democratic demonstration in that city on Monday last, that he preferred a negro to Lincoln for the Presidency. No such remark was made by him.

Commenting upon the qualification of Lincoln for the Presidency, Gov. Johnson said that his rail-splitting ability seemed to be his most prominent recommendation. If this qualified a man for the Presidency, the Governor playfully remarked that he had divers negro men who could beat Lincoln at that; and should one of them be made President on that account, he was confident of one thing—that he would be sound on the slavery question.—Terre Haute Journal.

The above I clip from the Terre Haute Journal of Thursday last. Now, Mr. Editor, permit me to tell you what the distinguished democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency did say. I was standing in front, within twenty-five feet of the speaker, looking him in the face at the time, and heard his words distinctly.

Johnson said, that Mr. Lincoln was bragged of as a great rail-splitter, and his friends claimed merit on that account.—He (Johnson) then continued, and said that he had twenty negroes on his plantation who could beat Lincoln at rail splitting; and give him great odds. He then named five or six, giving, as I supposed, the real names of the negroes, any one of whom, he emphatically declared, HE WOULD RATHER SEE ELECTED PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES THAN ABRAHAM LINCOLN. These were his words, and the sentiment was applauded by several persons on the stand around the speaker, as well as some who stood on the benches near me. As I passed away through the crowd, immediately afterwards, I heard several remarking upon this outrage upon all decency; and inquiring whether that was Douglas democracy.

Johnson did add something about such negro being sound on the slavery question, but that was thrown in only as another reason for giving preference to his negro for the Presidency.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, October 26, 1860.

Receipts of wheat were a trifle better today than yesterday, there being about 4,500 bushels on the market. Prices, under news of a decline at the lake shore, were a little easier, ranging at 86¢@88¢ for milling spring and 75¢@80¢ for shipping, and 65¢@70¢ for damp and grown wheat. The market closed with fair inquiry at those figures. Cattle came forward more freely and sellers had to submit to a decline. Fully 200 head of cattle about 600 bushels changed hands at 14¢@16¢ per bushel. Other grains unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80¢@82¢; good to choice mill spring 80¢@82¢; common to fair shipping 75¢@78¢; and grown wheat 65¢@70¢.

OATS—full article 45¢@47¢; best price declined. RYE—in fair request at 57¢@62¢ per 60 lbs. CORN—old shelled at 30¢@32¢ per 60 lbs. New in ear 15¢@20¢ per 70 lbs.

TIMOTHY SLED—in good demand at 1,50¢@1,60¢ per 40 lbs.

BARLEY—ranging at 45¢@60¢ per 60 lbs., for good samples, and 25¢@30¢ for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 25¢ per bushel.

BUTTER—wanted at 13¢@14¢ fair to choice roll and jar.

EGGS—wanted at 9¢@10¢ per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6¢ Dry, 4¢ to 12¢. FLOUR—spring at 2,50¢ per 100 lbs. POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7¢@8¢; chickens, 6¢@7¢; live chickens 12¢@15¢.

WOOL—ranging at 20¢@25¢ per pound for common to best clip, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Friday evening, October 19th.

Prices of wheat declined 1/2¢; Northwestern 100 lb. No. 1 spring 81¢; Northwestern 100 lb. No. 2 spring 79¢; extra 40¢@45¢. Corn 7¢. Oats 12¢. Rye 16¢. Barley in better request. New wheat price 18¢. Cattle market active at 17¢@20¢ for inferior to prime—Extra shipping cattle 3,50¢@60¢. Hogs 6,25¢@65¢.

BLANK LEASES FOR SALE.

Phoenix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phoenix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive evidence of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn of a most beautiful future will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparalleled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phoenix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying
